1. Which type of measure is more important for your country: Gender inequality, Women’s relative disadvantage to men, or the status of women? Which among the presented measurement methodologies do you prefer? Or do you have any other suggestions?

2. What dimensions and indicators would you choose for your country?

3. Please justify the reason for your selection of methodology, dimension, and indicator.