

LAUNCH OF NEW 'MULTIDIMENSIONAL POVERTY IN AFRICA' REPORT

Chaired by the Minister of Planning and Development, Madame Nialé Kaba

Hosted at Ecole Nationale Supérieure de Statistique et d'Economie Appliquée (ENSEA)

Boulevard Mitterrand, in front of Ecole Nationale de Police, Cocody (Abidjan)

Speakers include:

- Director of the Oxford Poverty & Human Development Initiative, University of Oxford, Dr Sabina Alkire
- Research officer, Oxford Poverty & Human Development Initiative, University of Oxford, Dr Boubou Houseini
- Director-General of the National Institute of Statistics, Ivory Coast, Ibrahima Ba
- Research Professor, ENSEA Abidjan, Prof Yaya Keho
- Deputy Director of Operations, the World Bank Abidjan office, Jean Noël Amantchi Gogoua

This is the first presentation on the continent of new Africa findings from the 2016 Global Multidimensional Poverty Index of the Oxford Poverty & Human Development Initiative. The launch brings together specialists working at the forefront of innovations in African poverty measurement to discuss the analysis in support of a new, more comprehensive approach to poverty reduction.

To attend the event, please e-mail Ms. Alphonsine Ali (email: alphonsine.ali@ensea.ed.ci, phone: (225) 22 44 08 42 / 22 48 32 11).